

Broughton Archipelago Expedition

Our Broughton Expedition takes place in one of the finest kayaking destinations in the world! Situated off the northeast coast of Vancouver Island, the Broughton Archipelago with its' maze of islands and hidden passages offers paddling beyond compare! Home to an abundance of marine mammals, sightings of which are guaranteed. This area is home to one of the largest Orca (killer whale) populations in the world, and along with them are substantial populations of Humpback and Minke Whales. The Broughton is also rich with natural predators (black bears, bald eagles, wolves, sea otters and more...) creating abundant wildlife and photographic opportunities.

Day 0	Arriving on Vancouver Island
	The day before your trip starts Your Broughton Expedition begins with a "Day 0". Day 0 is meant for traveling to Vancouver island on the Sunday before the start of the expedition. Upon your arrival in Port McNeill, we will meet at the Haida Way Inn at 19:00 hrs to join your fellow travelers and guides, and discuss the upcoming expedition.
Day 1	Travel to Camp
	This expedition commences from Port McNeill in the morning when you board our high-speed water taxi for a scenic voyage through the emerald green waters of the Inside Passage. After settling into our campsite the guides will conduct a kayak safety lesson and then we will venture out to explore our surroundings Accommodation: Camping
Day 2	Kayaking
	Today our route is planned to experience the numerous islands and inlets as we explore the Inside Passage. Our daily route is designed to offer the best chances for wildlife viewing and whale watching. Our guides will also take time to share information on inter-tidal zones and the amazing sea creatures that exist within them as we explore the low tide beaches of the area. Letting the ever-present tides and currents assist us on our journey, we will travel in our kayaks enjoying the natural splendor of this magical area. Orcas are prevalent here, so we will no doubt spend time watching these amazing creature's feed and socialize Accommodation: Camping
Days 3-5	Kayaking
	Days three to five we venture deeper into the archipelago, exploring the rugged west coast environment. We will soak in the solitude of this remote area as we encounter the abundant wildlife while exploring by kayak and occasionally on foot. When we find a prime camp location expect to stay 2 nights. Heath Bay, Crib Island, The Fox Group are among our camp destinations. Accommodation: Camping
Day 6	Kayaking
	Today after another hearty breakfast we break camp to travel to our final and one of our favourite campsite locations - The Burdwood Group of Islands. We will also have plenty of time to cruise for other wildlife, explore the inter-tidal zone for critters and capture photographs. Accommodation: Camping
Day 7	Departure Day
	After another hearty breakfast, we will begin our last paddle. After exploring the Islets of the Burdwoods we return to camp for our final lunch and preparation for our water taxi pick up at 15:00 hrs to return to Port McNeill.
