Hot Springs Cove Expedition

Clayoquot is known the world over for its summer population of resident Grey Whales as well as the geothermal waterfall and rocky pools of Hot Springs Cove (The average temperature of the hot springs is 50° degree Celsius, 122° F)! The area, recently designated as a Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO, abounds with wildlife including wolves, black bears, eagles and a rich variety of amazing sea creatures.

Day 1	Arriving on Vancouver Island
	You'll begin your trip at the launch site in the friendly, world famous community of Tofino. You can travel with us in the WeGo van or meet us at the launch site at 12:30 hrs. Here, we will make the transfer to our kayaks and, after a boat packing and safety lesson, begin our journey to the first evenings destination, Vargas Island Inn. Accommodation: Lodge
Day 2	Kayaking
	An early breakfast and hot drinks before setting off for some morning paddling along the exposed coast of Vargas Island. We will lunch on one of the beautiful sandy beaches, taking time to capture photographs of the abundant wildlife. Accommodation: Camping
Day 3	Kayaking
	Onwards we go after breakfast and hot drinks, continuing our journey north, enjoying the rugged west coast environment. Accommodation: Camping
Day 4	Kayaking
	An early rise and a hearty breakfast before we continue north following the coastline. Today we will kayak through Hayden Passage as we make our way around the north end of Flores Island. Accommodation: Camping
Day 5	Arrive & camp at hot springs cove
	Another blissful morning of paddling brings us to our final destination; we save the best for last! What could be better than relaxing tired muscles in the inviting 50° C (122° F) geothermal pools of Hot Springs Cove? Need we say more.....! Accommodation: Camping
Day 6	Departure Day
	Following another hearty breakfast we will break camp and await our water taxi pick-up. While we enjoy this boat ride through the islands, we are often fortunate to see Grey whales as they migrate through Clayoquot Sound. Upon returning to the port of Tofino we will enjoy our final lunch and say our farewells to those that are not traveling with us.
